

Tayana Solutions commmits collaboration with MYOB Enterprise Division for Acu Process Manufacturing

APM serves as a business solution that helps companies meet their entire process manufacturing needs to improve productivity and increase revenue.

ATLANTA, GEORGIA, UNITED STATES, October 12, 2021 /EINPresswire.com/ --

With a vision to reach out to more manufacturing businesses, MYOB Enterprise has formed a partner relationship with Tayana Solutions, focusing on Acu Process Manufacturing (APM) in their MYOB Advanced

Business cloud ERP platform. Rich functionalities such as formulation, bill of materials (BOM), production, quality control, compliance, EHS, labeling, and properties are available with core MYOB's Advanced Business ERP. The collaboration between the two companies for the combined cloud ERP solution is intended to help MYOB build better client relationships by meeting their manufacturing requirements.

APM is a reliable solution for process manufacturers struggling to meet their manufacturing needs. We help customers to go paperless by bringing true digital transformation for day-to-day functions. ”

Sangeetha Kumaraswamy

Carl Brooks, MYOB Enterprise Ecosystem Partner Manager, said, "MYOB is delighted that Tayana Solutions have decided to extend their Acumatica relationship with MYOB by joining the MYOB Enterprise Ecosystem. Their process manufacturing solution allows MYOB to extend our total addressable market to cover such manufacturing verticals as pharmaceutical, chemicals and oils, food and beverage, textiles, cosmeceuticals, and personal care to name a few.

Tayana Solutions have leveraged the power of our cloud ERP platform to provide a native all-in-one solution for ambitious process manufacturers to meet their business ambitions."

Vijay Ural, President, Tayana Solutions, commented, "We are glad to build a relationship with MYOB through APM, our reliable process manufacturing ERP solution. On behalf of our entire development team, I would like to thank the proactiveness of MYOB for their equal participation in carrying out the collaboration process successfully. We are looking forward to contributing to their high-standard business solutions with the flexible features of Acu process Manufacturing."
